ROLE PLAYER INFORMATION:

Subject 1: You are upset with your wife for constantly nagging you to find work. You are somewhat intoxicated, and you shoved your wife against a wall, and struck her repeatedly. When the police arrive, you claim that she attacked you and you only defended yourself. You do not want them in your house and you challenge their authority. You become increasingly uncooperative and eventually attempt to strike one of the officers, if the Students fail to use proper verbal skills and command presence. When you are arrested, you resist, based on the level of control exhibited by the Students.

Subject 2: You are upset with your husband because he doesn't work. He does nothing but drink beer, smoke cigarettes and watch TV all day, everyday. When you got home from work, you began arguing. Your husband became enraged, shoved you against the wall, and struck you repeatedly. You called the police and you want your husband arrested. When the police arrive, you tell them what happened. Your husband has struck you many times before.
